REDWOOD FALLS MAN FOUND GUILTY OF NONCONSENSUAL DISSEMINATION OF PRIVATE SEXUAL IMAGES

REDWOOD FALLS, MN --- A Redwood County jury found Chad Alan Blood Milhausen, Jr., 31, guilty of five counts of Nonconsensual Dissemination of Private Sexual Images. The jury deliberated for approximately four hours on March 13, 2025.

Shannon Ness, Redwood County Attorney, who prosecuted the case, told the jury in her closing argument, "Sexual images taken and shared between two consenting adults is to stay between the two consenting adults. They are not to be shared or published without explicit consent. There was no consent given by the Victim in this case. Yet, Milhausen posted five sexual images of Victim on a website – years after the images were taken and after they had ended their relationship. His purpose was two-fold. He wanted to embarrass her and attract hook-up partners. Milhausen did not care about Victim's consent nor her privacy."

Milhausen will be sentenced on April 28, 2025, at the Redwood County Courthouse.

Milhausen has prior convictions for criminal sexual assault in the third degree and failing to register as a predatory offender. Milhausen is required to register as a predatory offender.
